"Noeleen Battley-Mann Encouragement Award"

The Board of the VPFA honours the outstanding contribution that Noeleen Battley-Mann made to both the VPFA and a large number of poultry clubs throughout Victoria. The "Noeleen Battley-Mann Encouragement Award" is made annually to the individual or group of individuals who best exemplify the sustained contribution that Noeleen made to breeding and exhibiting poultry. The kind of service to be recognised may include, but not be limited to, publicity, administration, catering and support or the mentoring of young exhibitors. Nominations will be sought from affiliated clubs according to the criteria below.

1. To be known as "Noeleen Battley-Mann Encouragement Award".
2. Presented to a person or persons having given exemplary service to the poultry fraternity in Victoria at a local or state level.
3. Nominations are now sought from affiliated clubs. For 2017, applications will close on October 15th.
4. A duly appointed sub-committee will go through all nominations and report to the board no later than November 15th with its recommendation/s.
5. Nominee and Nominators to be notified prior to the award presentation at the 2017 AGM. (No surprise presentations).
6. Club President or Secretary to sign nomination form. This Award can only be received once.
7. Should no nomination of sufficient merit be made the sub-committee reserves the right to not make an award in that year
8. Should time of A.G.M. change then all times change accordingly.

How to nominate

Any club or member may submit a nomination a year. Nomination must be submitted on the form attached, and returned to the VPFA secretary by the due date (October 15th). Incomplete forms may be considered ineligible for assessment.

Form must be signed by either the Club Secretary or President.
